Notices

Please join us on Sunday at 10:30am for our next Virtual Sunday Service. You'll be able to find it by clicking the "Join Us" link on the home page of our website, or via the "Virtual Church" section in the "Sundays" Menu. Look out for the service called "Important Building Projects in the Bible: The Tower of Babel". If you'd like to join in with a fun aspect of this week's all-age service, please come prepared with a small stack of biscuits, spread of your choosing and a knife suitable for spreading this. All will be explained!

The second part of Creation Fest On Air will come live on Monday 27th. You can watch via their Facebook page, website or YouTube channel, but we will also host a watch party via our Facebook page too. Small group guides will be available to download for free via their website every week.

UBO (United Breaks Out) is a Free New Wine Event On-line. There are events for everyone; all ages & abilities. It runs from Thursday 30 July - Monday 3 August. Here's a link to a printer-friendly schedule. Visit <https://www.new-wine.org/> for more information.

Does anyone have any storage space from August 1st? A family is to be made homeless then, & will have to move into bed and breakfast, but they don't want to lose what they have painstakingly built up over the last few years, during very challenging times for them. If you can help, please contact the DCF office.

What has God been doing? Please send through any encouraging stories of what God has been doing so these can be shared in our weekly service. It can be a video, or something written. Please send though to the DCF office.

- Update from Mark and Jo

Mark and Jo have now been trained, along with Ceci Kokubu, as Bridges Family Mentors. Initially, Dawlish College will be approached to identify one or two families for a pilot scheme, funded by a small 'Recovery Devon' grant. Please pray that this goes well, that these families' lives are transformed and that light is shone into the dark places. Phone befriending is continuing for many people, with five new families being referred in the last two weeks. Plans are also being made for summer activity packs for school children and relocating the foodbank. Talks are ongoing with the Police and local authorities on drug-proofing Dawlish. Please pray for increased capacity to step through the many doors which are opening for the gospel. Some one-to-one ministry opportunities are now occurring 'in the real world', with social distancing. The ROC/CTDD prayer meeting is now fortnightly at 10am. Please see the calendar for joining details. We'd love to see you there.

- Thank you Lord for the amazing progress that we have seen on the church building site in the last few weeks! 'Great is thy faithfulness' indeed! Please help and protect everyone involved in the project, on and off site, and continue to provide opportunities to witness to people we come across during the construction.
