Christmas at DCF

For to us a child is born, to us a son is given, and the government will be on his shoulders. And he will be called Wonderful Counsellor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

Notices

This Sunday, we have a carol service at 10:30am. As I'm sure you know, the Carols in the Car Park event was moved on-line at the last minute. We have therefore joined with CTDD to create a virtual carol service. We will host this on our website at 10:30am (look out for our 'Happy Christmas Messages' recorded by Hazel and Guy). It will also be shown on the CTDD website (it's the same service, but without our messages!). The CTDD Virtual Carols in the Car Park will go live in the afternoon here. Please share this link with your friends and family. It will contain contributions from Dallas Ayling from St. Gregory's, and Mark Skelton, from St. Agatha's. The message will be from Mark Jones. If you normally watch our services via YouTube, it will be uploaded to the CTDD YouTube channel, and not ours. You can find their channel here.

Discover the gift of Christmas

The service on Sunday 27th contains a message from J. John, and will be a chance to reflect on what Christmas really means. Please watch, and invite a friend, especially if they are yet to understand the gift of Christmas.

On Christmas morning there will be a short, 'thought for the day', so please tune in and watch that (there won't be a Zoom on Christmas day)

On January 3rd, we start 2021 with a message 'Look up, Hope is Here' based on Acts 1.

DCF Alpha on-line: This is due to start on Monday 18th January. Please prayerfully consider if there is someone you could invite. There is information about the course on our website here, or you can email Hazel on DCFAlpha@gmail.com.
