Notices

This Sunday (3rd), we are having a live service at Dawlish College. It will be the fifth in our 'Hope is Coming' series, 'Hope for the Hopeless'. Do we share our hope with the hopeless around us? We'll have a guest speaker, Paul Morrish, visiting us. His message will be based on Psalm 119:1-16.

Please do join us from 10am for a hot drink. Although we will have a few compostable disposable cups available, it would save on waste if you could bring your own mug. We are still short on volunteers for serving tea and coffee. Please do get in touch with either the DCF office, or Angela Rudall if you would like to help.

Next week will be an online service and the sixth in our series, 'Hope for Unity'.

The Senior Leadership Team have prepared a short video with accompanying PDF slides containing information about what was agreed at the Members' Meeting last month. This was mentioned in our virtual service last week. Please do take a look. It contains information on:

- Our Vision
- Changes to our leadership during the replanting transition (Easter to October)
- Replanting timeline and key dates
- Funding position (£) for the Hope Centre
- Initial opening date for the Hope Centre

The video has been uploaded to Facebook and YouTube and can be viewed via this link:

Easter eggs and school assemblies: Hello everyone. I will be doing face-to-face Easter assemblies in both Gatehouse and Westcliff schools the 4th and 6th of April. As part of the assembly, I will be taking along a load of Real Easter Egg eggs for the teaching staff to give out to children who they deem would benefit from this. If you would like to contribute anything towards buying eggs, then please make a payment to Alan marked "Easter Eggs" by 31/3. Thanks all. Adam
